1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession.

The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who is responsible for managing my information?

This website is owned and maintained by SafeTech BVBA, we are also the data controller. This means we decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes. We are responsible for the collection and proper management of any personal information you submit.

We will keep your personal details secure and use the information you provide consistently with applicable privacy and data protection laws and the terms of this Privacy Policy.

3. What information do we collect?

MySafeWallet is designed to collect as little of your information as possible. MySafeWallet does not have user accounts, and it collects very little identifying information in our systems. Private keys, encryption passwords, and all other information necessary to operate our products are owned, controlled, managed, and possessed by Users (unless they opt to utilize another service or product which would be completely outside of our control), and never touch our servers or systems.

4. MySafeWallet Interface

SafeHavens wallet interface (including key-pair generator and unlocking functionality) never records nor transmit any of your private keys or encryption passwords. All information is entered and processed by your device, so MySafeWallet its employees, and its servers never have the opportunity to collect your private key, encryption password, or other related information.

If you choose to unlock your wallet via a third-party service, such as Ledger or the Arkane or Comet you are subject to their terms and policies.

5 How do we protect visitor information?

We implement a variety of security measures to maintain the safety of your personal information. Your personal information is contained behind secured networks and is only accessible by a limited number of persons who have special access rights to such systems and are required to keep the information confidential. When you access your personal information, we use of a secure server. All sensitive information you supply is transmitted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology and then encrypted into our databases to be only accessed as stated above.

6. Who will we share your information with?

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information unless we provide you with advance notice, except as described below. The term "outside parties" does not include our business. It also does not include website hosting partners and other parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety. However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

7. Communications

MySafeWallet prides itself in its frequent contact with Users and the community. These two-way communications may occur via telephone, email, in-person, Slack, Telegram, reddit, text message, voicemail, Signal, Wickr, Facebook (and/or Messenger), Twitter, written letter, or any other method. Records of these conversations may be kept in written, recorded, or digital form, as permitted by law, in a manner that is reasonably necessary for MySafeWallet to perform its business operations effectively. Emails will never be kept longer than one (1) year, though they may be deleted sooner for security or other purposes Other two-way communications will be stored consistent with this Policy. Nothing in this section should be construed as guaranteeing that communications records will be kept for any amount of time, if at all.
